THE SPOTLIGHT

Published for the pleasure and remembrance of the Student Body by the Annual Staff of

BOONVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Boonville, North Carolina

Dedication

Realizing that many kinds of work are necessary for the maintenance of a school system; we the Senior Class of 1961 wish to say "Thank you" for all you have done for us and others before us by dedicating this edition of the Spotlight to you, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reece, our capable Custodians.

It takes a joint effort to keep house when your family numbers more than seven hundred.

Class History

We entered the Freshman year very nervously and noisily with an enrollment of seventy-seven of which nineteen came from Fall Creek. We realized this was a great jump from grammar school but we learned to love it as we adapted ourselves to this new environment. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. McKnight, Mr. Dennehy, and Mr. Walker. As class officers we elected: Rondal Casstevens, President; Linwood Campbell, Vice President; Cora Leigh Hobson, Secretary; and Tony Reece, Treasurer.

In our Sophomore year, with seventy-one members, we had begun to have more confidence and to feel at home. We had several boys and girls playing sports that year. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Coram, Mrs. McKnight, and Mr. Stanley. We elected the following class officers: President, Rondal Casstevens; Vice President, Cora Leigh Hobson; Secretary, Steve Gross; and Treasurer, Tony Reece.

Our Junior year found us with only sixty members. One of the highlights of our Junior year was our play, "Boarding House Reach," which was directed by Mr.

Meyers. It was also a great experience for us to give our Junior-Senior Banquet, "Stairway to the Stars," which was held in the community building. This was followed by a Prom. This year we were under the direction of Mrs. Thad Reece and Miss Beulah Reece. Our class officers were: Steve Gross, President; Frank Brown, Vice President; Cora Leigh Hobson, Secretary; and Kay Crissman, Treasurer.

Our Senior class, under the leadership of Miss Day and Mr. Meyers, started its thrilling, yet sad, concluding year with only fifty-six members. Early in the fall we received our class rings. We were really looking forward to our trip to Washington and New York. This year Sandra Storie won "Miss Boonville High," and Charles Moxley, "Mr. Boonville High." Catherine Brown was elected "Homecoming Queen." We chose Crystal Reece and Sammy Sparks for our mascots. We elected as our class officers: Charles Moxley, President; Dorothy Brown, Vice President; and Cora Leigh Hobson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Class Prophecy

I, Sandra Storie, having been elected senior class prophet, am about to look into the future and see what fate will have been with our class ten years from now.

First of all, I see myself working in City Memorial Hospital as a nurse.

Dorothy Brown is still looking for her one and only.

Bonnie Brown is still taking little Mary Lou with her.

Nancy Hanks is now playing the piano for an opera company.

Shelby Jean Vestal was seen driving one of Donnie's tractors down the road.

Cora Leigh Hobson is now trying to decide, what to do next.

Steve Hinshaw is now working for Wachovia Bank and Trust Company.

Jay Martin is now playing basketball for the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Tony Hutchens and Wanda Brown are now living very happily in a home of their own.

Frances Williams is now the first woman President, what party we don't know.

Mrs. McKnight inspired Frank Brown so much in Chemistry that it is now his major in college.

We see Gaye Brown still has her old nickname SKINNY.

Tony Reece is still traveling Thunder Road to Wilkes County.

Carol Wagoner now has a diamond and hopes its for keeps.

Steve Gross is now Louisiana's Greatest Coon Hunter.

Varner Stinson is now working at Western Electric as an engineer.

Phillip Mosteller and Billy Smith were the first persons to land on the moon alive.

Dawn Crissman is now President of the Farmers Dairy Association in Winston-Salem.

Jimmy Carter is now driving a Greyhound Bus.

Charles Stone is now a Sergeant in the Army.

Phyllis Moxley is still flirting with the boys from Hanes Hosiery Mill.

Margie Brooks and Wayne Miller are now moving into their big brick home.

When Eddy Poteate ran into the car it was more fatal to him than it was to the car.

Rondal Casstevens is now living in Yadkinville and he is principal of the school.

Catherine Brown is now working at Reynolds waiting for her long lost lawyer to return.

Linwood Campbell surely misses standing around in the halls with you know who.

Larry Caudle is now trying to stay out of jail.

Donald Cave is now flying his own airplanes.

Linda Cave is now sweeping up the little Ash-ley's.

Seems as though Kay Crissman and Linda Steelman don't get much work done since they are sharing an apartment as sister-in-laws.

Jo Bill Hicks is now manufacturing left handed monkey wrenches.

Betty Sue Jester now has her own Falcon.

Peggy Jester is now rearing little Matthews.

Rosa Nell Jester now has her own bookkeeping methods.

Jerry Matthews is still trying to learn how to measure tobacco land.

Howard McKnight is now teaching Physics in Mr. Stanley's place.

Olese Miller is now running the county bus garage.

Charles Moxley is still taking life easy.

Roy Moxley still has his very own smile.

Ray Parker is so quiet no one ever hears from him.

Donnie Reece still has his very friendly ways.

Peggy Reece is now living in East Bend taking life easy.

Orrin Shaw, we are glad to say, has finally made up his mind about his many girl friends.

Steve Shore is still late for everything.

Kay Sizemores fords will still run.

Buster Smith is now driving a white Pontiac and living in Jonesville.

Jeanette Snow now has a busy career life.

Linda Wagoner still tries to lose weight.

Martha Wagoner is now working at Hanes Hosiery.

Rosa Emma Wilhelm now has an office and a desk of her own.

Minnie Sue Wagoner is now taking up Home Economics at home.

Annie Sue Reece is still living in Boonville.

Junior Willard is now having a hard life of farming.

Prophet, Sandra Storie

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1961 knowing that we must soon leave Boonville High School, would like to leave a few of our most prized possessions to those taking our place.

1. Bonnie Brown wills her love of having a man around the house to Brenda Moxley.
2. Linwood Campbell wills his love of FFA to Roger Collins.
3. Jimmy Carter says that he doesn't have anything worth leaving.
4. Rondal Casstevens wills his ability to get along with girls to Johnny Reece.

32. Roy Moxley wills his ability to never lose an argument in volleyball to Dwight Hayes.
33. Ray Parker wills his love of Physics to Larry Comer.
34. Eddy Poteate wills his ability to run over cars, and survive to Steve Reece.
35. Donnie Reece wills his job in the store to anyone fool enough to take it.
36. Peggy Reece wills her politeness to anyone who needs it.
37. Tony Reece wills his knowledge of Wilkes County to any future bootleggers.
38. Orrin Shaw wills his love for girls to all boys.
39. Steve Shore wills his ability to stay in trouble to Frank Hobson.
40. Kay Sizemore wills her carefree ways to Frances Hobson.
41. Billy Smith wills his dancing ability to Mark Faw.
42. Buster Smith wills to Harvey Hunter his love for Jonesville girls.
43. Jeanette Snow wills her friendly ways to Rena Smith.
44. Varner Stinson wills his knowledge of Yadkinville to Charles Holcomb.
45. Charles Stone wills his bachelorhood to Foy Willard.
46. Sandra Storie wills her position as "Miss Boonville High" to anyone who can fill the bill.
47. Jean Vestal wills her love for married life to Becky Hogan.
48. Carol Wagoner wills her nice personality to Brenda Matthews.
49. Linda Wagoner wills to Betty Ann Caudle her seat in General Business.
50. Martha Wagoner wills her ability to go steady to Linda Snow.
51. Minnie Sue Wagoner wills her Friendly Manners to Frances Moxley.
52. Rosa Emma Wilhelm wills to Linda Hobson her ability to type fast.
53. Frances Williams wills her position as Editor-in-Chief of the annual to Nan Transou.
54. And I, Frank Brown, leave this job to anyone brave enough to take it.
55. Junior Willard wills his pleasant disposition to Dale Sizemore.

FEATURES

INTELLIGENT in their studies, nice in their ways,
FRANCES and JAY the teachers amaze.

Victors in the race for MOST POPULAR these two were bound to be,
Because so well liked are KAY and STEVE.

Unique in all fields with talents abound, PHYLLIS and CHARLES are BEST ALL AROUND.

MARJORIE and DONNIE are Politeness itsself; so we put them on COURTESY'S shelf.

Ever smiling and never blue they'll be, DAWN and TONY have the BEST PERSONALITIES.

Ray's and rah's they deserve and receive; OLESE and BUSTER are the MOST ATHLETIC, we believe.

ROSA EMMA and STEVE our BEST SPORTS we concede four who can laugh or joke with more kindness and ease.

Excellent in their abilities to work and to lead, GAYE and HOWARD are MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.
